MILLINER

From Lady Gaga to the country's fastest rising music performers, Australian fashion innovator and headwear designer, Cindy Vogels, dresses the stars.

- launched her first fashion label at just 16 years old
- founded her own brand, The Devoted Milliner, in 2012
- 3 of her customised pieces placed 1st, 2nd and 3rd at the same event at a Melbourne Cup Luncheon in 2012.
- studied Fashion Design and retail management 2013
- was cast into the international spotlight when her handcrafted feather crown was worn by pop sensation, Lady Gaga in a 2014 performance with the inimitable Tony Bennett.

Cindy has since dedicated her unique talents to the music industry, growing an enviable portfolio of strong, striking designs, including the eclectic outfits for iconic rock band, Regurgitator's 25-year anniversary tour

A multi-talented creative, Cindy is also an event producer and creative director, founding both CollabAnation, a live arts performance movement promoting creative collaborations across Australia, and Space Girls Festival, a vibrant event committed to delivering 100% female programmed events.

Some of Cindy's amazing millinery creations will be on show at the event, including the feathered headpiece worn by ladygaga!
